SSE Updates for Spring Term

Mothering Sunday

We would warmly like to welcome you to celebrate Mother's day with us on the 22nd March 2020 where children of SSE will be singing bhajans, performing various acts, reciting poems and there will also be a display of art and craft prepared by the children.

Please do join us in celebrating Mother's Day at Soar Valley College between 9:00 -11:00 on the 22nd March 2020. Children and parents are requested to wear any clothing which is Red in colour as our theme is Love and its best symbolised in "Red".

National Poster and Poem Competition

It is with great pleasure that the National SSE team introduces the theme, the nationally driven SSE wing activity and the National Poster & Poem Competition as part of the build-up to National Easwaramma Day 2020 here in the United Kingdom. Our theme is "My Sai & I" and, in this year of His 95th Birthday, is focussed on the personal relationship we each have with Him.

Please make sure the posters have no wordings in it and are A4 in size.

Please hand them in to your child's respective teacher before the deadline. Deadline for entries :8th March 2020

Swami says, "If you constantly contemplate on and chant the divine name, that itself will purify your thoughts and feelings. Never forget the divine name. If you constantly contemplate on the divine name, your life will surely be sanctified."

Likhita Japam – Writing the Lords name repeatedly

As a lead-in to National Easwaramma Day 2020, we are asking each student to engage in Likhita Japam (repetitious writing of the name of God), to help foster that important, internal, heart-to-heart relationship. Children from all SSE groups, i.e. Nursery and Groups 1 to 4, are all encouraged to participate, along with their parents and gurus.

The gurus will organise the booklets for the children from recycled papers to keep it environmentally friendly.

If parents would like to help in this initiative – we are requesting all parents to provide unused lined paper from used school books from previous academic years which can be stapled together to create new booklets.

The Japam (written) books will be collected and taken to Prashanthi Nilayam as an offering to Swami on his 95th birthday.
